NOTE.

This list of historical and descriptive books, and of references to articles appearing in magazines during the last few years, relating to the Latin American republics, has been compiled to supply the great demand for such lists constantly being received by the International Bureau.

While no attempt has been made to compile a complete bibliography of those countries, sufficient titles are given to supply the needs of any person or institution desiring to study the Latin American nations.

The books and magazines listed may be obtained direct from the publishers, whose names are given wherever possible. In case of a book out of print, application for it can be made to any large book-dealer in America or Europe.

All titles listed are in the International Bureau, and can be consulted in the reading room of the Columbus Memorial Library, at No. 2, Jackson Place, Washington, D. C.

The attention of persons wishing to file this list for future reference is invited to the semi-annual lists of additions to the Columbus Memorial Library. These will serve as supplements to this original list, and afford opportunities to obtain the most recent publications on Latin American subjects.

JOHN BARRETT,

Director.

[NOTE: Attention of those interested in Latin America is called to the "Monthly Bulletin" issued by the International Bureau of the American Republics. Every issue of this periodical contains much valuable information of a commercial and economic nature. The annual messages of the various Presidents, reports of international congresses, extracts from the official reports of departments, commercial laws, tariffs, articles relating to railroads, mines and mining, industries, etc., etc., are all noted as soon as published by the several governments of Central and South America, the West Indies and Mexico.

Each number of the "Bulletin" is prefaced by a review which enables the reader to obtain quickly a general idea of its contents.]

NOTE.

Since the publication of the first list of books in 1907 comprising 98 pages and the first supplement in 1909 of 34 pages, the issuing of books and articles relating to Latin America has increased enormously and the present list will be found to contain the major portion of the new works.

For the sake of convenience to those consulting it, the books have been grouped by countries, and arranged alphabetically, with the periodical references in italics.

The list of periodicals mentioned contains practically all the more important magazines which treat of Latin America and can be used as a reference list for the American and European publications on those countries.

Addresses of publishers have been given wherever possible to enable persons desiring some particular item to write directly for it. In case of out of print books, any of the large book dealers of America or Europe will be glad to receive orders for them. All items listed can be consulted at the Library of the Pan American Union (The Columbus Memorial Library), Washington, D. C.

Lists of references on special subjects pertaining to Latin America will be compiled by the Pan American Union and forwarded on request made to the Director General, Mr. John Barrett.

THE PAN AMERICAN UNION is the international organization and office maintained by the twenty-one American republics, as follows: Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Salvador, United States, Uruguay, and Venezuela. It is devoted to the development and advancement of commerce, friendly intercourse, and good understanding among these countries. It is supported by quotas contributed by each country, based upon the population. Its affairs are administered by a Director General and Assistant Director, elected by and responsible to a Governing Board, which is composed of the Secretary of State of the United States and the diplomatic representatives in Washington of the other American governments. These two executive officers are assisted by a staff of international experts, statisticians, commercial specialists, editors, translators, librarians and clerks. It publishes an illustrated monthly, "Bulletin," which is a carefully edited and attractive record of the present conditions, general progress, commerce and particular development of each republic. It can be obtained on the payment of a small subscription fee. The Columbus Memorial Library, established as a division of the Pan American Union, contains nearly 30,000 volumes, over 1,100 maps and atlases, 14,000 photographs, and receives over 46,000 pieces of periodical literature each year. The volumes include official records, laws, history, narrative, description, statistics and general economic conditions relating to all the American republics, and can be consulted without charge by responsible persons. A dictionary catalogue and a card index to periodical literature is maintained and now includes over 100,000 entries.
